

INTERNET RESOURCES For Teachers & Students

Mission San Luis Official Website

www.missionsanluis.org

Our website has information about site visits, education programs, a section dedicated to the history and archaeology of Mission San Luis, and Teacher's Resources such as lesson plans, vocabulary words and A Teacher's Guide to Mission San Luis.

Division of Historical Resources | Florida Department of State

<http://dhr.dos.state.fl.us>

Links to the Bureau of Archaeological Research, Bureau of Historic Preservation, and other resources within the Division of Historical Resources

<http://dhr.dos.state.fl.us/preservation/trails/spanishcolonial/index.cfm>

Spanish Colonial Heritage Trail

<http://dhr.dos.state.fl.us/preservation/trails/nativeamerican/index.cfm>

Native American Heritage Trail

Exploring Florida | Social Studies Resources for Students and Teachers

<http://fcit.coedu.usf.edu/florida/default.htm>

Developed by the Florida Center for Instructional Technology, University of South Florida. Includes thousands of Florida resources in all subject areas.

<http://fcit.coedu.usf.edu/florida/lessons/lessons.htm>

Short history of Florida presented through readings, questions, and activity sheets for upper elementary students

<http://fcit.coedu.usf.edu/florida/photos/military/sanlu/sanlu.htm>

Four galleries showcasing images of San Luis

TeachingFlorida.org | A Program of the Florida Humanities Council

<http://teachingflorida.org>

Created to provide teachers with an authoritative source on Florida's history and heritage. Showcases scholarly articles that explore topics covered by the Sunshine State Standards. Also includes resources such as maps, photographs, and audio programs.

<http://teachingflorida.org/article/san-luis-de-talimali-or-mission-san-luis>

Summary of the history of Mission San Luis. Also provides relevant links and suggestions for further reading.

Division of Library & Information Services | Florida Department of State

http://dlis.dos.state.fl.us/library/bibliographies/NatAmerican_bib.cfm

Bibliography for Native American tribes in Florida

<http://dlis.dos.state.fl.us/library/bibliographies/SpanishColonialHistory.cfm>

Bibliography for Florida's Spanish colonial history

Optical Microscopy | National High Magnetic Field Laboratory

The Archaeology Collection

<http://micro.magnet.fsu.edu/micro/gallery/archaeology/archaeology.html>

Images of artifacts excavated from Mission San Luis, including the quartz crystal cross found in the Franciscan church.

Military Artifacts of Spanish Florida, 1539-1821

An Internet Museum

<http://www.artifacts.org>

Online exhibition of Spanish military artifacts from southeastern North America.

<http://www.artifacts.org/Mission.htm>

Examination of artifacts specific to the Spanish mission period.

Florida Wildflowers | Seeds of Discovery

<http://www.flwildflowers.com/San%20Luis/>

Article discussing the excavation of passionflower seeds at Mission San Luis. Addresses indigenous foods, as well as Old World ones.